THE RACING DRIVER, by Denis Jenkinson: This iconic work of the philosophy and practice of high-performance driving has gone AWOL from the editorial library, and I want to replace it. Hard cover preferred, soft cover acceptable. Only complete copies in at least fair condition, please; somebody must have one, surely? Wine reward for any info leading to a purchase, with bonus bottle for a signed copy. Oh yeah, and if you happen to be the person to whom I loaned my paperback copy years and years ago, please may I have it back?
